Dear Mother

My minerology book has arrived thanks so much for sending it, Amice & I hope to be able to identify some of the strange stones & rocks we find in the desert by its aid.

I am glad to hear you are recovering from the flu. I do hope May does not get it, we hear rumours of it being very bad in Cairo, we are having exceptionally bad weather just now.

Amice's cousin Jan arrived here yesterday she will stay with us for a few days, she is very interested in the things we can show her here. the temple & other antiquities of course & the desert & the native life, she has been staying with her brother (army) & his wife in Cairo & their only idea of entertaining her is to take her to cocktail parties & to watch tennis or polo at the club - which is rather disappointing for an intellectual guest in Egypt for the first time invitation to lunch with our local police officer, he has really behaved so nicely this time that we had him to lunch with us one day in the temple, (it was quite suitable as we had our male staff to assist in the entertainment) we gave him an English lunch. & felt obliged to accept when he invited us to an Egyptian luncheon with him the following day. This is the menu:

- 1 Soup. made of eggs. chicken broth & lemon.
- 2 Cold chicken & salad.
- 3 Omelette stuffed with spinach cooked in milk.
- 4 A sort of cold minced meat highly spiced.
- 5 Eggplant & tiny marrows stuffed with savoury rice & rice wrapped in vine leaves.
- 6 Savoury dish of beans.
- 7 Baked custard & pistachio nuts.
- 8 Desert. Apples. Mandarins Bananas & Oranges.
- 9 Coffee.

I had refused breakfast that morning, & so survived, but poor Amice who had had her usual morning meal got bad indigestion and had to resort to a dose of eppy.

We took Jan to see Sandic's house this afternoon & also visited their little farm, & saw all the animals, there was a she goat due to have kids, she was enormous so Amice said I hope she will produce 4. we hadnt been gone a quarter of an hour when four kids arrived, there is great excitement, they are all quite sure the birth was assisted by Amice's remarks. I am quite sure we shall have an influx of hopeful ladies coming to ask her to use her magic on their behalf.

Later Have just returned from an expedition to Girga, we left our work early in the afternoon & drove over to show Jan the quaint native shops, mosques etc then we went & had tea with the bank manager, he was so delighted to see some English people, so we couldnt hurry away, then Joey refused to start, we finally traced the trouble to water leaking into one of the cylinders but we were very much delayed & Nannie was in a great state of fuss as we were nearly two hours late for our usual bath time & now there isn't any time left for ^{me} letter writing this evening.

Amice joins me in lots of love to you both also to Pat.
