We've finished the ferocious/~~ous~~<ous> & enormous pile of work, Praise be! Myrtle has been an angelic brick & we've team worked so that what seemed impossible is done, (she trying to work through 2) camel riding 3) mere packing - if its^{sic} No 1) you'll see them finely developed by the time we reach England!

Now for the fun!! We starting off in Joey armed to the teeth with paints & paper & hope to bring back overwhelming evidence of our adventures — you'll hear from us from all sorts of strange places I hope on the way home & we'll arrive with international dust & mud on Joey (& us) & wierd farings! lots of love from your more or less adopted daughter

Love to Pat — I am glad we've finished what we set out to do —
