

Arabah.
Feb 2/³rd 1933.

Dear Mother.

The letter with the cap has arrived thank you very much, it is just what I wanted, sorry you had so much trouble. the colour did not really matter so very much

Amice is back again & is much better but has had a very wretched time & is feeling rather weak still. she arrived Thursday morning, & the night before, I had to take a guest to catch the night train 10.30 from Baliana which meant it was well past eleven before I got home & I had to be at the station again by 8 o'clock in the morning to meet Amice, I was pretty sleepy that day. Of course there was great excitement

212¹

Arabah.

Feb 2nd 1933.

Dear Mother.

The letter with the cap has arrived thank you very much, it is just what I wanted, sorry you had so much trouble. the colour did not really matter so very much

Amice is back again & is much better but has had a very wretched time & is feeling rather weak still. she arrived Thursday morning, & the night before, I had to take a guest to catch the night train 10.30 from Baliana which meant it was well past eleven before I got home & I had to be at the station again by 8 o'clock in the morning to meet Amice, I was pretty sleepy that day. Of course there was great excitement

2

when we arrived here. Today we have been receiving callers, the omdah & the Coptic Priest happened to come at the same time, which was fortunate as the Omdah knows how to time ~~his~~ the length of his stay suitably, & after taking coffee & indulging in a little polite conversation. takes his leave & goes, the Priest on this occasion had to go when the Omdah left. otherwise he stays on & on long after all subjects of conversation have been completely exhausted & we begin to say the same things all over again.

I shall be starting lessons again on Sunday. during the holiday I have been writing a fairy story from one of my old Fairy Story Books. one Illustrated by Charles Robinson, it is one that has stuck in my memory all

when we arrived here. Today we have been receiving callers, the omdah & the Coptic Priest happened to come at the same time, which was fortunate as the Omdah knows how to time his the length of his stay suitably, & after taking coffee & indulging in a little polite conversation. takes his leave & goes, the Priest on this occasion had to go when the Omdah left. otherwise he stays on & on long after all subjects of conversation have been completely exhausted & we begin to say the same things all over again.

I shall be starting lessons again on Sunday. during the holiday I have been writing a fairy story from one of my old Fairy Story Books. one Illustrated by Charles Robinson, it is one that has stuck in my memory all

These years. Of course I have had to adapt it to Arabic, but it makes an excellent story it is called the
"Story of the Thirsting Stones." I am wondering what the school master
will think of it. I have to write to him tomorrow evening to arrange about
my next lesson.

Amice joins me in lots
of love to you both. also to Pat.

Your affectionate daughter
Myrtle.

these years. of course I have had
to adapt it to Arabic, but it makes
an excellent story it is called. the
"Story of the Thirsting Stones." I am
wondering what the schoolmaster
will think of it. I have to write to him tomorrow evening to arrange about
my next lesson.

Amice joins me in lots
of love to you both. also to Pat.
Your affectionate daughter
Myrtle.