

Cairo.

Baird.

4

20.

Dear Mother

Our plans seem to be altering every day. We had a glorious time at Vicha till yesterday when El G. told us that as it was Ramadan <sup>(month of fasting)</sup> in a couple of days he was arranging for ~~for~~ us to spend the rest of the stay in Cairo. He was obliged to go to Sheben el Kom yesterday to receive a prize for being first in a riding competition for all officers in a certain district. So he arranged for a servant to come to Cairo with us & take us to a hotel near the station saying he would join us later, as he intended to apply to have his holiday until the end of this month. I have just had a letter from him

Dear Mother

Our plans seem to be altering every day, we had a glorious time at Vicha till yesterday when El G. told us that as it was Ramadan <(month of fasting)> in a couple of days he was arranging for ~~pa~~ us to spend the rest of the stay in M/<C>airo, he was obliged to go to Sheben el Kom yesterday to receive a prize for being first in a riding competition for all officers in a certain district, so he arranged for a servant to come to Cairo with us & take us to a hotel near the station saying he would join us later, as he intended to apply to have his holiday until the end of this month. I have just had a letter from him

2

To say he is unable to get leave to be in Cairo & as it is the month of fasting he cannot have us as guests in Vicha, because his position makes it necessary to observe the Mahomedan rules very strictly himself, although he does not believe in them. When I asked him why he had not told us before that our visit was at an unsuitable time he said it <sup>would not be</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>to do so,</sup> not polite since I had said I would not arrange to come another time, & he hoped to get leave & then he could be free to be with us in Cairo.

I cannot say how bitterly disappointed we both are, we were so enjoying being at Vicha & now every thing has got messed up.

to say he is unable to get leave to be in Cairo, & as it is the month of fasting he cannot have us as guests in Vicha, because his position makes it necessary to observe the Mahomedan rules very strictly himself, although he does not believe in them. When I asked him why he had not told us before that our visit was at an unsuitable time he said it ~~was not~~ <would not be> polite <to do so,> since I had said I could not arrange to come another time, & he hoped to get leave & then he could be free to be with us in Cairo.

I cannot say how bitterly disappointed we both are, we were so enjoying being at Vicha, & now every thing has got messed up.

we shall find out the earliest steamer
to come home.

Excuse this brief note
Love to you both Myrtle.

we shall find out the earliest steamer
& come home.

Excuse this brief note

Love to you both Myrtle.