Dear Mother.

Here I am safely installed with Rex & Nancy. The California arrived at Port Said in the evening, so I had to spend the night at Port Said, & spent the following morning at the Customs & arrived at Cairo 4.30.

Rex was at the station to meet me, Nancy is much better, she had a very good passage all the way. I have been going round getting things fixed up. Nannie came to see me the morning after I arrived, & she has now gone on to get the house ready.

Little Un will arrive in Cairo to-morrow or the day after, I think he wants to spend a day or two in Cairo, but I shall go down to Baliana in any case Thursday.

Monday we all went to lunch with the Bruntons, they live some way out of Cairo & have a pretty little house & have made a charming garden, Rex insisted on my driving his car. its^{sic} very nice but not as lively as Lady Godiva, it was horrid having to keep to the right of the road

I expect there will be a crowd on Baliana station to welcome me when I arrive - I will tell you all about it in my next letter.

Lots of love to you both in which Rex & Nancy join.

Your affectionate daughter
Myrtle.
