Dear Mother.

We have been over to Girga today to see the weavers again & fetch a pair of curtains that Amice had ordered to be made for her, we scrambled up the ladder & through the hole in the wall & down the other side & received a great welcome from the weavers. we examined their work & I saw a lot of shuttles hanging up on the wall, fortunately I remembered their name in Arabic & I have purchased one of them for Miss Collins. They are made by the local carpenter, & the weaver wanted to get a nice new one made for me, but I preferred to buy a nice well worn one, so I had his old one & gave him the money to get a new one, & we were both perfectly satisfied.

We have a friend of D<sup>r</sup> Gardiner's staying here for a week or two, he is a charming man, a Checho Slavacian, & a phylogist & he is making translations of some of the difficult texts that are painted on the walls of some of the back walls of the Temple, they are too faded & broken for it to be worth while our making detailed drawings of them but they have to be recorded & it takes an expert to do the job. We call him our learned friend, his name is Černý, he speaks fluent but rather strange English & is very fond of fun & jokes. we are all enjoying his company.

Amice thanks Father very much for his message to her re printing. & sends love to you both.

Here are two pictures of Fill-fill & her son Wip-wat I am disappointed they are not clear, they must have moved, I should have given a more rapid exposure. but you can see what darlings they are. there is also one of little Hakim taken the day after we had him. isn't he a lovely little ball of fluff.

Lots of love to you both.

Your affectionate daughter
Myrtle.
