Dear Mother.

Post Bands come rolling in by every mail, I am putting some aside as aids to conversation when ondat's & such like call.

I am getting on very well in my solitary state. our Soudani Guard has been changed again & we have again one we like best of all. he takes a great interest in the work & is very intelligent I was so glad when he came to report to me last Tuesday, the other two are quite ordinary good soldiers. but Mahommed Kheir is a character

I have not yet heard how Amice is travelling home. she did not mention

2 it is the one letter I had since she left (left a week ago) but the post has been quite disorganized owing to a Mohammedan Feast that lasts 3 days. & probably the letter is hung up some where.

I am so sorry to hear Leckie is having difficulty in getting a new post. Fancy Lily leaving her home!
 I can't say I blame her. I suppose all her children are settled in jobs now.
 I can't imagine why she kept it a secret from Aunt Clara

The corn is being gathered in the fields here & soon the threshing will begin, they are preparing the ground for the cotton crop - they do not loose much time.

There is really no news this week.

Love to you both
 Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.
