

Arabah.
March 20th 1934

278 4

Arabah.
March 20th 1934

Dear Mother.

I am enclosing two more of Amice's snaps of the puppies also one she took in Joey of some camel's behinds, I was driving & had to creep up behind them & sieze^{sic} the first opportunity of getting past, not too easy a job. you can see Joey's head lamp in the corner of the picture.

I am contemplating a long camel jaunt for my leave, I shall be on my own, as Amice is still troubled with that sprain in her leg which makes long rides a doubtful pleasure I am beginning to feel I need a little change after five months steady slog -

When I was at Sheikh Sarbit's village

Dear Mother.

I am enclosing two more of Amice's snaps of the puppies also one she took in Joey of some camel's^{sic} behinds, I was driving & had to creep up behind them & sieze^{sic} the first opportunity of getting past, not too easy a job. you can see Joey's head lamp in the corner of the picture.

I am contemplating a long camel jaunt for my leave, I shall be on my own, as Amice is still troubled with that sprain in her leg which makes long rides a doubtful pleasure I am beginning to feel I need a little change after five months steady slog -

When I was at Sheikh Sarbit's village

The omdah told me about an ancient cave or room covered with hieroglyphs which is two days camel ride from the village ^{into the desert} & there are legends of buried treasure there protected by jinns. like in the 40 thieves. He suggested that I ought to go to see it, ^(the cave, not the treasure) so, when Amice decided that she didn't feel like attempting the jaunt we had planned to visit the next oases to Kharga, I didn't think that would be very amusing to do on my own, as it meant spending two of the days in a train, I suddenly thought of the Omdah's suggestion & as Amice is ~~willing~~ willing to spare Sandie to go with me I am seriously considering it, it would take about 7 days in all (or perhaps 8.) I have just written to Sheikh Sarbit to ask

the omdah told me about an ancient cave or room covered with hieroglyphs^{sic} which is two days^{sic} camel ride from
 the village <into the desert> & there are legends of buried^{sic} treasure there protected by jinns. like in the 40 thieves^{sic}, he suggested that I ought to go to see
 it, <(the cave, not the treasure)> so, when Amice decided that she did'nt^{sic} feel like attempting the
 jaunt we had planned to visit the next oases to Kharga, & I did nt^{sic} think that would be very amusing
 to do on my own, as it meant spending
 two of the days in a train, I suddenly
 thought of the Omdah's suggestion
 & as Amice is ~~willing~~ willing to spare Sandie to go with me I am seriously
 considering it, it would take about 7 days in all (or perhaps 8.) I have just written to Sheikh Sarbit to ask

3
 if he could recommend a guide & if I could hire two camels from his village, I shall take on two riding camels from here, it will be huge fun arranging it all, & all the necessary correspondence that has to be done in Arabic

Sheikh Jed el Karim carried out his threat, & came armed with a huge sheet of paper covered with verbs that he had written out for me, I had a great time deciphering it, he says quite cheerfully they are just a few for me to start with,
 & he will do me lots more strange things come under verbs.

 a kitchen is a verb because it is a form of the verb to cook, & the cook & his cooking are also included in verbs. one has to change any

if he could recommend a guide & if I could hire two camels from his
 village, I shall take on two
 riding camels from here, it will
 be huge fun arranging it all, & all
 the necessary correspondence that has
 to be done in Arabic

Sheikh Jed el Karim carried out
 his threat, & came armed with a
 huge sheet of paper covered with
 verbs that he had written out for
 me, I had a great time deciphering
 it, he says quite cheerfully they
 are just a few for me to start with,
 & he will do me lots more

strange things come under verbs.
 a kitchen is a verb because it is a
 form of the verb to cook, & the cook & his cooking are also included in
 verbs. one has to change any

5 41

preconcieved ideas of grammar that one may have had.

I hope to tell you more of my plans
 next week.

Lots of love to you & Father & Pat.

Your affectionate daughter
 Myrtle.

preconcieved^{sic} ideas of grammar that
one may have had.

I hope to tell you more of my plans
next week.

Lots of love to you & Father & Pat.

Your affectionate
daughter
Myrtle.