Dear Pa + Ma Broomie - Happy Christmas
 past + Happy New Year to come!

Here is my Christmas greeting - its late 'cause the printers only delivered it yesterday - I wrote it while having my throat done + they promised to have it finished a week before Xmas but the machine broke down +
 no body would mend it until after the Feast of Ramadan (2 days after Xmas) so poor me got let down! When they did get it finished it came in the form you see - nearly all the copies speckled with ink
 + thumb prints - the paper folded anyhow,
 + the wierdest type + spacing - true Egyptian

Dear Pa & Ma Broomie - Happy Christmas
 past & Happy New year to come!

Here is my Christmas greeting - its<sup>sic</sup> late 'cause
 the printers only delivered it yesterday - I
 wrote it while having my throat done & they
 promised to have it finished a week before
 Xmas but the machine broke down &
 no body would mend it until after the

 & thumb prints - the paper folded anyhow,
 & the weirdest type & space/**ng - true Egyptian style! moreover they sent some 5 or 6 hundred copies! (instead of 100) I suppose, having got the machine to work, they didn't like to stop it!

I didn't even get a proof of the letterpress so the punctuation is strange - never mind here it is + lots of blessings for you with it!

Myrtle is very well + has just finished another picture - isn't she a good girl!

Lots of love to both + to Pat too

Yours affectionately

Amice Calverley
