

Arabah
March 10th 1933

Dear Mother

This will be a very hurried note as we have guests this evening & it is now past bed time, we have Miss Gardiner^{sic} {Gardner}, Geology professor of Bedford College & two of her students the students are here for one night only they will see the temple tomorrow & go on to Cairo by the night train but Miss Gardiner^{sic} is staying two or three days, as she wants to examine our cliffs for traces of a certain deposit that she is working on now.

I brought the raven out for exercise to-day & he was able to fly a few yards, he went straight back into the outhouse where he has

Dear Mother

This will be a very hurried note as we have guests this evening & it is now past bed time, we have Miss Gardiner, Geology professor of Bedford college & two of her students the students are here for one night only they will see the temple tomorrow & go on to Cairo by the night train but Miss Gardiner is staying two or three days, as she wants to examine our cliffs for traces of a certain deposit that she is working on now.

I brought the raven out for exercise today & he was able to fly a few yards, he went straight back into the outhouse where he has

2
made himself thoroughly at home.
& is very annoyed when I bring him outside

I received your letter with the picture of the Egyptian school.
it is quite correct, & the pupils are girls. they are having classes for girls, but as yet very few attend they are kept at home by their mothers to mind the latest baby & as there is always a steady supply of babies the poor little girls don't get a chance to go to school. I was very amused when the schoolmaster told me he had use his stick on his girl pupils. but he beat them very gently.

I must be off to bed now it is past ten & we get up at a quarter past six.

made himself thoroughly at home.
& is very annoyed when I bring him
outside

I received your letter with
the picture of the Egyptian school.
it is quite correct, & the pupils
are girls. they are having classes
for girls, but as yet very few attend
they are kept at home by their mothers
to mind the latest baby & as there is always a steady supply of babies the poor little girls don't^{sic} get a chance to go to school. I was very amused when the schoolmaster told me he had <to> use his stick on his girl pupils. but he beat
them very gently.

I must be off to bed now
it is past ten & we get up at a quarter
past six.

it is getting quite hot now. I expect next month will be a scorcher.

Love to you all from us all.

Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

3
it is getting quite hot now. I expect next month will be a scorcher.
Love to you all from us
all.
Your affectionate daughter
Myrtle.