Jan 31st
1st Ramadan -

Dear Father.

The Essence of Peace arrived to-day thanks very much for getting it for me. I havnt<sup>sic</sup> seen a ghost of a mosquito since the inundation went down. but I expect they will be buzzing around when I go down to Cairo in the spring. Thank you also for seeing about my boots. I am writing to Cooks to tell them I am expecting a parcel. so hope I shall get them soon.

Miss Calverley arrived yesterday morning. To-day after lunch she had another rather important stopping come out of a tooth. so will have to go down to Cairo to the dentist again. is'nt<sup>sic</sup> it rough luck. it might have come out two days ago when she was on the spot.

3 hours later

just returned from seeing Miss C off. we walked to the nearest road where the car was waiting to take her to the station. Sardic and Ahmud Abdu Sellam went with her in the car & I returned here with Ahmed Ibrahim our night guard, it is only about a quarter of an hour's walk across the desert, but at night one feels it must be miles & miles as one plods across the sand. the guard walking in front with the lantern. tonight is the new moon of Ramadan. just a thin syckle<sup>sic</sup> in the evening sky.

I am enclosing the photos I took at Kena, is'nt<sup>sic</sup> the one of the Arab horseman a splendid picture? Kodak's thought it so good that they made a special enlargement from it -

 The ones of the procession that I took from the balcony are very good considering I had to lean over & tip the camera downwards. I think as photographs they are rather unique I have made a little plan of one so that Mother can find the things I have described in my letters. if she uses a magnifying glass she ought to make out everything very clearly.
 You can see how completely Eastern it all is, not a single European to be seen among the crowd.
 I must be off to bed now.
 Lots of love to you both
 Your affectionate
 Myrtle
