Dear Father.

I have bought you such a posh pair of shoes, a nice cheerful orange, they are the same as Sardic wears & considered very superior. I am going to make the three pairs up into a parcel & will send it parcel post next time ~~to~~ we go into Baliana. You are to choose which pair of the gamoose hide shoes you like best, & the other pair are for Eric, one pair is red the other black. I don't know which you will prefer. I do hope the orange goat skin shoes will fit you as I think they will make you comfy house shoes & they are stout enough for garden wear also. If the gamoose hide shoes pinch your toes you might lend them to Mrs Childs for washing days.

Thanks so much for the shoe polisher (funny how both our minds run to feet) I have passed it over to Sardic who does our boots & told him we should expect an extra swell polish - he is very proud of it.

I am seriously thinking of spending some of my hard earned wealth on a motor car when I come home this summer, it will be something that we can all enjoy & we may just as well have a good time while we are all hale & hearty. The thing I cannot make my mind up about is - shall I buy a second hand car & sell it ~~again~~ when I start for Egypt again - or shall I buy a new car & have it stored during the winter? I cant^{sic} say I am frightfully keen on a second hand engine - one might be buying the other man's troubles, although I believe one can be fairly safe in purchasing through the A.A. & a car not more than two years old ought to be dependable for a few months use.

On the other hand, I see the Morris Touring cars (to seat 4) one £130 new. & I am afraid I have a leaning in favour of one if I could get a lock up garage some where near at a reasonable rent. What do you & Mother think about it. will you talk it over & if possible enquire about garages etc.

you see I shall not want to waste any more time than I can help when I come home.

Joey is mended again. I am afraid he has'nt earned his keep out here. he is really more suited to civilized parts, a camel - though slow. does keep his tail above the rocks - & is more suited to the scenery.

Amice has just made an awful ~~pun~~ pun. she has bought two more rugs & she says they must be perfect because they are floorless - (flawless) -

Lots of love from both of us.
Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

Ps. I think the labels are awful swank -
Amice is very jealous
