Dear Mother.

I am so glad to hear you are enjoying my letters about our holiday, I do not expect you will receive quite such long ones for the rest of this month as we are working very long hours in the hopes of finishing by May 1. We have been starting work in the temple by 6.30 AM & leaving at 5 PM with only one break of 1 1/2 hours for lunch, so you can imagine we are pretty tired. We are hoping to return across Europe in Joey, taking him from Alexandria to Greece & driving round from there, it will take from 3 weeks to 1 month, I expect we should have great difficulty to get a ship direct to England as they have been all booked up for the coronation & there will be a long waiting list of people going home on leave, we might have to wait several weeks before there was a vacant cabin, when our plans are more definite I can send you a list of places to post to on our way & dates etc, it will be great fun & just the best time of the year, all the spring flowers will be out in Greece.

Amice & I have been having a deal in wheat. we decided the best present we could give our staff here would be enough grain to feed them during the summer, so we bought two huge sacks of wheat & today they were divided into 7 heaps & each one took his share to store in his house. There was great rejoicings & we feel that if they cannot get work, at least they have a store of food that should last 5 or 6 months, we were able to buy the wheat through Barclays Bank. The manager of the branch at Girga was here last Tuesday & we talked to him about it, the banks here lend money on the harvest & hold the wheat as security, so through buying from him we got the best grain at a reasonable price.

Amice & I were very interested to hear all about the wedding garments. I do hope it was a fine day. The bundle of Humorists arrived safely I expect this will be the last literature I shall receive here, as for letters, I think you had better send to Cook's Cairo after April 25th Amice joins me in lots of love to you both

 Your affectionate daughter
