ship wreck! I am saved from shipwreck!
 He refused to get in the other car when it was got out of the sand but insisted on riding in Joey who he said was the only safe thing in dangerous deserts. He & the gay young Frenchman who owned the car were pretty sights. They had removed coats & ties, & their shirts were sticking to them & they were very glad to have a swig out of our water flask. but they were full of beans, & considered it a huge lark & such a relief to escape from all the formalities

I had my last lesson on Wednesday. the Schoolmaster returns to his home for the holidays all April. today I received your letter with the P.Cs of London. (many thanks)
