Dear Mother.

To-day is your Birthday & I hope you have had a happy day. We are preparing for the visitors from the Residency, it will be a squash round our dining room table with four extra, as the Chief Secretary & his wife are bringing two friends.

Amice will do the polite in the morning & show them round the temple & if it is agreeable to them, we will go for a pic nic up one of our wadys in the afternoon. it will be the first pic nic this season so far we have been too busy all together.

I have a very tame sparrow who lives in a hole near where I am drawing. directly I settle myself he comes to see what I have for him & hops round my feet picking up crumbs, when he has eaten all he can he stays quite close to me all fluffed out & sleepy & watches every thing I do, one day I was pointing my pencil on a bit of sand paper & he stood on tip toe & craned his neck to see what I was up to. may be^{sic} he hopes for hints in nest building as I erect strange affairs with planks & black cloth to shade me from the sun.

Amice says will you get her a new cash book from Woolworth's. it is a long narrow book, red cover with Cash Book on it. price 6^d for which she sends stamps. you could post it "book post."

Please thank Pat for her letter. I hope the job is not too trying. I expect in a little while she will have settled down & it will go smoothly.

Amice joins me in much love to you all. Her cold is much better now. she has been unluck^{sic} this season & was so disappointed to be ill while Dr Junker was here & to miss the visit to the Oultons.

o to Pat.

Lots of love to you & father

Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

I am so sorry to hear about poor Mr Anderson, I hope he has quite recovered by now.
