S.S. Ranpura.
Sept 27th 8.30.

Dear Mother & Father.

Had a very easy journey down. The train drew up alongside the new dock where the Ranpura was waiting, we crossed straight from the train up the gangways & on board. a steward directed me to my cabin, where the cabin steward collected my ticket. I had a wash & tidy up. Then went to the saloon & had tea & choose my seat & table for the rest of the voyage. I also booked 2 seats at my table to be reserved for Miss C & her brother. After tea I went to my cabin & unpacked. I have two companions so far. one a jolly rather flighty sort of girl going to Bombay & a trained nurse who has a patient in the 1st class. so so far I am in clover. I saw a notice to say that the ~~pilot~~ pilot goes ashore at Dover with the mail bag at 10 o'clock so am taking the opportunity to send you a letter.

Had a very nice dinner. soup. fried plaice lamb cutlets. neopolitan ice & fruit & coffee
This boat is exactly like the Ranchi.
lascan crew & everything. I feel quite at home

I am looking forward to turning into my bunk & reading with my nice little electric light just over the head. Dear little stewardess - asked what my requirements were in the morning. I told her I only wanted to be left in peace till breakfast time.

I think this is all my news so far. Thank you both so much for giving me such a nice send off. Give my love to Pat & tell her I am depending on her to keep you both amused during my absence.

All my love to you both your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

Best wishes to Mr & Mrs Childs.
