Dear Mother.

I have received your letter containing Income Tax paper & have written to say I will fill in when I return to England. I am enclosing it in this will you please post it. I am getting so tired of having to pay 4<sup>d</sup> postage on all these letters about Income Tax.

So glad to hear you have been enjoying my adventures, they are certainly rather out of the ordinary, when I think about them afterwards they seem almost too good to be true, rather like a lovely dream that one hates to wake up from.

My coat has come home from the Tailors it is beautifully made but the getting & the paying for it was rather dramatic, the man demanded double the proper price & was insolent as well so I refused to negotiate with him further (he was a Copt) but referred the matter to the chief of Police in Bahiana who is very courteous to us on all occasions, he dealt with the matter in the real Oriental way. sent some soldiers to the Tailors shop. they brought the Tailor & the coat to the police station. he was there given the correct sum that he had refused to accept & told to mend his manners.

he is now a sadder & wiser Tailor. I am sorry there was this fuss as his ~~work~~ work is very good but I cannot employ him again. One thing is pretty certain, no one in Baliana will dare to try to over charge so ~~out~~ outrageously again.

We have Dr Junker here now collating the seasons work. he will finish tomorrow or the next day. Otto will return to Bano with him. Otto has been rather out of sorts lately. very depressed & nervous. Amice has been very worried about him & will be glad to be relieved of the responsibility.

Truda left yesterday & Elfie goes today. so soon Amice & I will be alone again. it has been a very trying season & we are feeling very fagged.

Lots of love to you both your affectionate daughter Myrtle

I am sorry to hear Mr Childs is loosing his job, but I am much more sorry for Mrs Childs, I feel that she is like the scape-goat. & one cannot help her because of the other two. its a hateful problem -
