Dear Mother.

I do hope both your colds are better now, I wish you could have a little of this sunshine to cheer you up.

Poor Sardic is in hospital for a few days, he kept getting such bad headaches & seemed so weak & queer that we took him into Baliana on Tuesday to see the Doctor, who said he had better remain in the hospital where he could have him under observation, we have heard from him to-day, he says the trouble was hook worm. a horrid thing they get from the canals here, they breed in the intestines & cause a lot of trouble if unchecked. the D^r is giving Sardic injections & he is very much better & will be home Sunday when the D^r & his wife are coming to have tea with us. I wrote Sardic a little note to buck him up & to-day I got the answer which I discyphered^{sic} with great difficulty, he says he was cheered & made very happy by my letter, & that he is much better than at first & sends salaams to every one.

Our sparrows are getting very tame again. directly we arrive they come down on to our scaffolds for their morning crumbs, M^{rs} S always comes to me & M^r S always goes to Amice, isn't it funny, we are so glad they are friendly. The sparrows in Amon's chapel never came to us at all & seemed to be always quarrelling among themselves. The Osiris sparrows are much better behaved

I am beginning to think quite a lot about my home coming, we ought to have a spring jaunt some where in Lady Godiva don't you think, it will be quite funny driving again. I have only driven Joey about three times, while Amice was away, - by the way Joey is the expedition car now. Rockefeller has paid for him at last.

I have an awful lesson to prepare for Sheik Sarbit for tomorrow, I tried to read a more difficult story than I had previously attempted & got hopelessly tied up last lesson.

I have been practicing the pronunciation of some of the long words since & hope to do better next time - here are a few. warakhathahu.

sagrierataeni, fataharraka - etc & when one has to run one word into the other without a pause it's awful. my tongue & throat ache after an hour.

Lots of love to you both, also to Pat & Mrs Childs. I hope Maudie will benefit by her stay at Margate
