

Arabah el Madfuna.
Nov 6th 1934

296
Arabah el Madfuna.
Nov 6th 1934

Dear Mother.

We are all settled in camp now. Miss Clark & I came together Wednesday night. The two Austrians came Saturday morning & Amice arrived yesterday. She has bought a second hand car in Cairo a Ford, as Joey cannot carry every body. Miss Brideson, the lady I met in town will not arrive until next month. There have been the usual visitors & we have two of our favourite Soudanies. Mahomed Kheir & the nice fat Ombashi who came on my trek last season. We were so pleased to see them again.

Last night we had a most weird & unusual experience, a thunderstorm without any rain. There were vivid flashes of lightning from all directions & deep rumbles of thunder. We were very much afraid there might be rain which would be rather serious for us, as our roof would probably fall in, but nothing

Dear Mother.

We are all settled in camp now. Miss Clark^{sic} {Clarke} & I came together Wednesday night the two Austrians came Saturday morning & Amice arrived yesterday. She has bought a second hand car in Cairo a Ford, as Joey cannot carry every body. Miss Brideson^{sic} {Bridson}, the lady I met in town will not arrive until next month. There have been the usual visitors & we have two of our favourite Soudanies. Mahomed Kheir & the nice fat Ombashi who came on my trek^{sic} last season. We were so pleased to see them again.

Last night we had a most weird & unusual experience, a thunderstorm without any rain, there were vivid flashes of lightning^{sic} from all directions & deep rumbles of thunder. We were very much afraid there might be rain which would be rather serious for us, as our roof would probably fall in, but nothing happened & this morning it is clear & windy.

296

2

I like our new Austrian man very much. He is exactly like Mr Labell. both in looks & manner & voice, & as he knows hieroglyphs & draws well I am sure he will be a great help which is a great relief. The others are still unknown qualities yet.

I had my first lesson from Sheikh Jed el Karim on Sunday. He was delighted to find I had not forgotten my Arabic & says I have made a great improvement during the summer. He has been made head master in a new school in the next village, half-an-hour's donkey ride from Arabah el Madfuna. & he comes on his way home to give me my lesson. The Omdah is trying to get him the position of head master in the school here, as the man who replaced Sheikh Sarbit is not very satisfactory.

I hope Father's letter was in time for his birthday. I had to write it in a great hurry as Sandie was going into Bahiana & there was a chance it might catch the night train

Love to you both
Your affectionate daughter. Myrtle.

happened & this morning it is clear & windy.

I like our new Austrian man very much. He is exactly like Mr Labell. both in looks & manner & voice, & he knows hieroglyphs & draws well I am sure he will be a great help which is a great relief. The others are still unknown qualities^{sic} {quantities} yet.

I had my first lesson from Sheikh Jed el Karim on Sunday. He was delighted to find I had not forgotten my Arabic & says I have made a great improvement during the summer. He has been made head master in a new school in the next village, half-an-hour's donkey ride from Arabah el Madfuna. & he comes on his way home to give me my lesson. The Omdah is trying to get him the position of head master in the school here, as the man who replaced Sheikh Sarbit is not very satisfactory.

I hope Father's letter was in time for his birthday. I had to write it in a great hurry as Sandie was going into Bahiana & there was a chance it might catch the night train

Love to you both
Your affectionate daughter.
Myrtle.