Dear Mr Broome

Thank you so very much for the most magnificent boxful of wedges never in my life have seen so many & varied wedges & of such splendid oak - I feel as though a bit of Bushey had got here! Broomie thinks you cut your coats according to your cloth - ie the length & thickness was decided by the bit of wood you had - they'll be so very useful & used for all sorts of strange purposes - I'm in the thick of battles with the customs who are really

Dear M^r Broome

Thank you so very much for the most magnificent boxful of wedges never in my life have seen so many & varied wedges & of such splendid oak - I feel as though a bit of Bushey had got here! Broomie thinks you cut your coats according to your cloth - ie the length & thicknes^{sic} was decided by the bit of wood you had - they'll be so very useful & used for all sorts of strange purposes.

I'm in the thick of battles with the customs who are really making asurd demands since the tarif has been changed - they charged about 2/- on the seeds & 2/- on the wedges & about 18/6 on D^r Gardiner's hamper!! so I'm fighting I got the seeds knocked down to 5^d & have hopes for the rest.

Myrtle is very well & were both hard at work - in fact I think she's longing for another adventure so that she can write a long letter! Poor Joey is still an invalid & alas, likely to remain so for some time as his spare part isn't obtainable -

My love to dear Mrs Broomie
& remember me to Mrs Childs
Yours very sincerely
Amice Calverley
