Dear Mother.

I had a wire from Bootis yesterday to say there was no accommodation on the Atsuta Maru but they would offer a passage on the City of Calcutta sailing ~~May 16th~~ May 15th just class only. So I thought I had better accept, as I don't want to stay in Cairo longer than I can help & my travelling allowance will just about cover the expenses. The fare on this boat is £33. She goes direct to London so there will be no opportunity to write once I leave Egypt. I do not know the day she is due home but Bootis can probably tell me.

I am leaving here tomorrow night & will have about two days in Cairo I may have to leave for Port Said on the 14th
If we cannot get all the packing

Dear Mother.

I had a wire from Cook's yesterday to say there was no accommodation on the Atsuta Maru but they could offer a passage on the City of Calcutta sailing May 16th May 15th first class only.

So I thought I had better accept, as I don't<sup>sic</sup> want to stay in Cairo longer than I can help & my travelling allowance will just about cover the expenses. the fare on this boat is £33. She goes direct to London so there will be no opportunity to write once I leave Egypt. I do not know the day she is due home but Cooks can probably tell me.

If we cannot get all the packing done in time Miss C will travel down the following night, she asks me to send you her love & she is looking forward to seeing you.

I expect I can give you more information after I have been to Cooks this is a very hasty note as we are up to our eyes in packing cases

I shall soon be able to tell you all about everything instead of trying to get it all in a letter

Lots of love to you both I am so looking forward to coming home

Your affectionate daughter
