Dear Mother.

Yesterday I received your letter with Amice's enclosed, I am so glad she has been staying with you, I am sure she has had lots to tell you, & I am glad you have seen the results of our combined efforts. its^{sic} not exactly a pocket book is it? I am also very pleased to hear you are going to Dr Gardiners I am sure you will both enjoy the visit & I shall be very anxious to hear all about it & how Father enjoyed the quartette.

Hav'nt^{sic} very much in the news line today I have been progressing in my leather work under Mahommed Kheir's instruction, in fact I invented three new patterns much to his amazement, he wasn't^{sic} content until I had shown him how to do them.

On Tuesday we are to have a lesson in dressing skins, we are going to buy a fresh goat skin from the market for the demonstration

I expect it will be very amusing. & a little messy -
The garden is coming on splendidly, we are having some of the salad & the tomatoes will soon be ripe & next week we shall have our own beans.

Lots of love to you both & Pat.
Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

PS. The letter cards of London are splendid.
when you write next could you enclose some ribbon threaders from Woolworths. I was using one for the leather, & Mahommed Kheir cast eyes of envy on it & I would like to present him with some. here is a sketch.

various sizes if possible.
