Dear M<sup>rs</sup> Broomie -

Thank you so much for the lovely long letter I'm<sup>sic</sup> so glad you liked the sparrow portraits - Here is one of our friend the "Father of Promenadings" I couldn't make his tail wag for you - Pa Broomie will have to cut out a tail & put it on with a pivot & string & then
 - "as it has one it will wag one!"

Peggy has only one pup - (its brethren didn't survive, alas, but she is very proud & pleased with the one) "Steppie" is very occupied in its up-bringing & doesn't give Peggy a chance to show what a fine parent she is! Too much competition -

Enclosed is a picture of you looking for something in your new cupboard!

Lots of love to both of you from Amice

Myrtle ~~to~~ is beginning to consider possible plans for her holiday jaunt - so is Otto - but they won't go in the same direction!

Bother! I can't reach Perhaps it's on the top shelf or in the bottom cupboard I'll open all the top ones + make sure.
 etc
 etc
 And she left it in the pantry after all!! so she beat Pa Broomie with the Broom stick for making so many cupboards + getting her all muddled
 P.S. Have you looked in all the cupboards perhaps you'll find a workman left behind by accident - Better make sure they're out of the house!
