Dear Mother.

The time is simply slipping away. & it looks as if we shall be hard put to it to get through the work Amice guaranteed for this season, as only we two & Otto can do the work for Vol III. that has to be finished this year, the others can only do odd jobs & preparing tracings for future seasons, Amice is very disappointed she quite expected they would be able to do our work by the end of two or three months, she has not been at all well the last week. some sort of a tummy upset, she had to be in bed several days as she had quite a temperature, however she is about again though not too fit, I think she had been overworking to try to make up for lost time. & to sit doubled up for over 8 hours a day does not aid digestion, she cannot work at an easle like I do now. I find the upright position a great relief though I am quite fagged out by the end of the day. Otto finds the same

he says he is so tired by the concentration needed for the work that he can't read any of the books he brought to study during the evening

I do not seem to have any news to tell you this time, we do not seem to have had any excitements. Truda took her leave & stayed in Luxor at Chicago House. she seems to have had a very nice time. (and the holiday Amice & I would choose) I believe the others also propose to go to Luxor, but they have never been there before so naturally want to see the sights. I am very undecided what to do. I have thought about going to Dahla. the Oasis beyond Kharga. but I would have to go alone as Amice & I cannot be away together, & Amice says she can't spare the time for any leave now. It would take a week & be very expensive as I should have to take a native servant, ~~with~~ if we could have gone together we could have shared some of the expenses. probably I may just take a few odd days & go for camel rides about here. Amice has been making fun of the cupboards & is enclosing her remarks in my letter. I also send a picture of an old inn that may interest Father

I cut it out of Punch. Truda knows it, she says it was a wool exchange in old times, & the roof is one huge room with a shoot at the end to push the fleeces down, it might be fun to visit it some time if we are in that direction

Lots of love to you both & to Pat Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

All the beefeaters have arrived & been very much admired
