 BALIANA, UPPER EGYPT.

Dear Mother & Father.

We are busy preparing for the Royal visit tomorrow. I believe only the Queen of the Belgians is coming after all. Miss C. wrote to say she hopes to be back in time to see her, so I shall be very relieved, as it is a great responsibility showing delicate pencil drawings & seeing them safely back with tissue paper over all the top surfaces & being polite & answering questions at the same time; with two of us, one to hand the drawing & the other to replace it when looked at, all goes smoothly.

Capt Calverley is leaving on the 28th of this month he is spending some time in England on his way back to Canada, & proposes coming to see you if he may, to tell you all the latest news of the camp etc. I wonder if you could arrange to put him up for a few nights, he will want to have a look round London before returning to Canada, & none of his relations live near, & he does so hate hotels, he is awfully nice & very interested in everything, & very homely, & being a Canadian farmer does not expect or wish for elaborate hospitality, in many ways he is very like Christopher, eager to be friendly to everyone, rather high strung & excitable, but of course he does not go off the deep end like Christopher does. I am sure you will both like him. & if you could make him "feel at home" for a few days I would be so pleased. I have received so much kindness from his sister that I feel I am greatly in debt to both of them. I will tell him to write to you when he arrives in England - (he eats anything. & is fond of children) you will probably have great difficulty in keeping him out of the kitchen, as he is sure to want to discuss farming with Mr Childs.

I hope to send you some photos next letter I am keeping them for Miss C to look at before parting with them.

I am sure you will be delighted to hear that Mohamed's hand is all most well. my surgery had a wonderful effect, he is so grateful for everything we have done for him

English mail just in. your letter of March 9 has arrived. letters seem to get here very quickly - I hav'nt heard anything of the wool yet. but being large I expect it will come cargo -

More news in my next letter.

Lots of love to you both & to Pat

Your affectionate daughter
