Dear Mother.

I was in lucks<sup>sic</sup> way yesterday I had two letters by the same mail, your's & Fathers<sup>sic</sup>, tell Father that the story of the builders<sup>sic</sup> little boy caused much merriment.

We are all off for an outing tomorrow, it is the day of the great Muslim Festival at Kena, you will remember I gave you a long description of it when I went with Amice my first year here, & we still have the camels of pottery that I bought there.
The others have never seen it. so we thought it would be fun to go again. we will drive there, Amice will pilot the Ford & I will take Joey

 & we will have lunch in the desert on the way.

The cat was very amusing at supper one evening, we had put him down a saucer of very hot soup & he was so eager to drink it he did not know what to do.
 I think he must have burnt his nose for he stood an arm's length away & dabbed at it with his paw. & then licked up the splashings, until it was cool enough for him to lap from the saucer.

The carpenter is now making furniture for our annexe. he has made a tressle table & a settle & is now busy on shelves, he is full of ideas for other furnishings but these are not encouraged

& then our party will be complete.
 Amice is all ready getting rather worried & harassed by the difficulty of keeping the beginners employed, fortunately Otto knows his job thoroughly & gets on with it but poor Erica needs constant supervision even in tracing & preparatory work.
 Truda Clark finds photography as practiced out here, is rather different to what she learnt in the Polytechnic School. but she has got some good usable photographs & will <sup>soon</sup> get used to the methods here. Amice as usual tries to do too much, & is worried because she cant get on with her own work as usual.

I have been doing dentistry.
 Amice lost a stopping about a fortnight ago. so she wrote to a dentist in Cairo to ask if he could send something for a temporary stopping. he sent a little stick of white gutta percha which we had to warm & push into the hollow tooth. so far it has been quite successful. I will tell you about this next letter. Love to you both Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.

Will you look in the tall-boy & find the bits over from father's silk coat (from Akhmim) & send me a tiny cutting. 2 inches square will be enough also some stick of calandras (not more than 8) at various times all together. ie. one or two in a letter
