Dear Mother.

We have just returned from a picnic in one of the wadys near here, we climbed up a very steep sand slope & had great fun sliding down. & then the men made our tea & their own & we arrived back here in the dusk.

This will be rather a short note today as I have Sardic's account of the weeks shopping in the market to enter in the book & there are all the bills that came in at the end of the month that have much time & consideration, I had two sheikhs for my last lesson. I think Sheikh Jed-el Karim heard that I had just completed the story that I was writing when he was giving me lessons & was very eager to hear the end of it, so I gave him the corrected copy to read while I did dictation with Sheikh Sarbit, he was very pleased with the story.

I will think of you tomorrow hope you will enjoy everything I shall look forward to hearing all about it.

I hear the Omdah was very pleased with the letter wrote to him asking him to have the poisoned dogs buried instead of being thrown out in the desert, we hav'nt^{sic} been troubled with any more bad smells & I hear he had the remains of the cow that the police had poured poison over buried also.

I must now tackle the accounts & bills.

Lots of love to you both Your affectionate daughter Myrtle.
