April 28th 1931

Dear Mother.

This is just a hasty note as I am in the throes of packing. I am leaving a few days earlier than we originally intended. I had a bit of prickly heat & it has brought out a patch of ezema on my upper lip & nostrils which is rather painful, so am going up to Bano by the night train & will catch the first available boat. I shall see Dr Brown & get him to prescribe for it as the usual remedies dont seem suitable here in the heat. Homocia brings out a profuse perspiration.

Amice has decided to leave Joey in Egypt & will store him at Chicago House with their cars. She feels the long drive to Bano in the heat or these roads would be too wearying, so she will finish here

Dear Mother.

This is just a hasty note as I am in the throes of packing. I am leaving a few days earlier than we originally intended. I had a bit of prickly^{sic} heat & it has brought out a patch of ezema^{sic} on my upper lip & nostrils which is rather painful, so am going up to Cairo by the night train & will catch the first available boat. I shall see Dr Brown & get him to prescribe for it, as the usual remedies^{sic} dont^{sic} seem suitable here in the heat, homocia brings out a profuse perspiration.

Amice has decided to leave Joey in Egypt & will store him at Chicago House with their cars, she feels the long drive to Cairo in the heat on these roads would be too wearying, so she will finish here and come up by train, she will probably stay with the Tatton-Browns before leaving Egypt.

Will let you know further arrangements in a day or two when I have seen what accommodation is available on homeward bound boats.

Lots of love

Your affectionate daughter
(but not beautiful)

Myrtle.
