Dear M^{rs} Broomie - This is only a meazley weazley bit of a letter but its to wish you + "Pa Broomie" Happy Christmas also M^r & M^{rs} Childs
I expect Myrtle has told you all the news so that the only news I can tell you that she is quite well + flourishing in spite of a fearful dose of charring - we've been wall scrubbing all day today + yesterday - bathing the King Seti + his gods - + very dirty they were

[December 1930]

Dear M^{rs} Broomie -

This is only a meazle-ey weazley^{sic} bit of a letter but its^{sic} to wish you & "Pa Broomie" Happy Christmas also M^r & M^{rs} Childs.

all the news so that the only
day - bathing the King Seti &
his gods - & very dirty they were Too! I feel we ought to have some special blessing granted us for making them look beautiful once more - I think I've got house maid's knuckles - it can't be knees as I was standing all the time!

All the people have been coming in relays to greet us & only one has (no 2!) a new baby, this season's crop is poor - The necklaces have been a great success & fearful envy is now rife in the village!

How is the 'cello? I wish Pa Broomie could have seen us carpentering the other day - we made a handsome bookcase -

With lots of love to all yours affectionately Amice Calverley
